in this new york times bestseller morgan leads readers on the fictional spiritual odyssey of an american woman in the australian outback brings together for the first time essays that consider a range of high profile cases of literary hoaxing identity crisis or imposture in australian literature critics explore the history of hoaxing and imposture and consider the cultural and political issues at stake nolan at australian catholic university longlisted for the national book award for nonfiction there kevin young goes again giving us books we greatly need cleverly disguised as books we merely want unexpectedly essential marlon james award winning poet and critic kevin young tours us through a rogue s gallery of hoaxers plagiarists forgers and fakers from the humbug of p t barnum and edgar allan poe to the unrepentant bunk of jt leroy and donald j trump bunk traces the history of the hoax as a peculiarly american phenomenon examining what motivates hucksters and makes the rest of us so gullible disturbingly young finds that fakery is woven from stereotype and suspicion race being the most insidious american hoax of all he chronicles how barnum came to fame by displaying figures like joice heth a black woman whom he pretended was the 161 year old nursemaid to george washington and what is it an african american man barnum professed was a newly discovered missing link in evolution bunk then turns to the hoaxing of history and the ways that forgers plagiarists and journalistic fakers invent backstories and falsehoods to sell us lies about themselves and about the world in our own time from pretend native americans grey owl and nasdijj to the deadly imposture of clark rockefeller from the made up memoirs of james frey to the identity theft of rachel dolezal in this brilliant and timely work young asks what it means to live in a post factual world of truthiness where everything is up for interpretation and everyone is subject to a pervasive cynicism that damages our ideas of reality fact and art over the past thirty years the australian travel experience has been aboriginalized aboriginality has been appropriated to furnish the australian nation with a unique and identifiable tourist brand this is deeply ironic given the realities of life for many aboriginal people in australian society on the one hand aboriginality in the form of artworks literature performances landscapes sport and famous individuals is celebrated for the way it blends exoticism mysticism multiculturalism nationalism and reconciliation on the other hand in the media cinema and travel writing aboriginality in the form of the lived experiences of aboriginal people has been exploited in the service of moral panic patronized in the name of white benevolence or simply ignored for many travel writers this irony the clash between different regimes of valuing aboriginality is one of the great challenges to travelling in australia travel writing from black australia examines the ambivalence of contemporary travelers engagements with aboriginality concentrating on a period marked by the rise of discourses on aboriginality championing indigenous empowerment self determination and reconciliation the author analyses how travel to black australia has become for many travelers a means of discovering new and potentially transformative styles of interracial engagement writing teacher and artist caroline joy adams knows the tremendous power of the written word and she has made it her mission to put into action her belief that everyone can experience and enjoy this power many can write but few do caroline believes that everyone has stories to tell and she provides the inspiration and tools to help you get started and keep writing book jacket newspaper clippings and journal articles covering the publication of mutant message down under by marlo morgan this second volume contains further exploration of the themes considered in volume 1 namely the theoretical framework of copyright and the convergence divergence and globalisation of copyright god is all powerful and can lift anything yet he is also all knowing so he can make something he cannot lift the solution to this ancient paradox is found nowhere but here the logical answer explains life s meaning in a beautiful manner this manuscript is a profound exploration of spiritual awakening forgiveness and the nature of reality it challenges conventional religious beliefs asserting that god did not create the physical world and is unaware of its suffering offering instead a path to true peace beyond illusion the book is structured to first establish core spiritual principles then guide readers through overcoming grief and life s hardships expose the flaws in societal systems like healthcare and ultimately reveal the transformative power of recognizing our eternal nature anchored in personal revelation and extensive study it invites readers to step beyond fear and embrace love as their true essence critique of marlo morgan s mutant message downunder takes several aspects of book and shows these to be a ridiculous fabrication morgan admitted to a group of aboriginal elders in 1996 that she had faked it with both wit and empathy kaminer takes on what many people hold sacred book jacket
